

GGA Geography - Year 2 - Spring term - Continents

Key Vocabulary and definition

The seven continents are North America, South America, Europe, Asia, Africa, Australasia ( also known as Oceania) and Antarctica.
The five oceans are the Arctic, Atlantic, Pacific, Indian and Southern.

|           |   |
|-----------|---|
| continent | One of the seven very large land areas of the world. Each continent has a wide range of land types, climates and animal life. |
| ocean     | One of the five very large areas of salt water on the Earth's surface.  |
| China     | China is a country in the continent of Asia.  |
| Beijing   | Beijing is the capital of China   |
| Shanghai  | Shanghai is the biggest city in China.  |

Why are we learning this?

I will be able to name and locate the world's seven continents.

I will be able to name and locate the world's five oceans.

I will be able to locate China on a map and compare it to the UK.

Why is it important?

To understand the geographical location of continents and oceans using simple compass directions and directional language.

To understand some of the similarities and differences between countries eg. between the UK and China

7 continents map with 5 oceans

© www.countries-of-the-world.com
Free for personal and educational use.

Himalayas

Great Wall of China

Learning links

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Y1 Geography | 7 Continents   |
| Y2 Geography | S. American continent/countries                                      |
| Y4 Geography | African and Australasian continents/ Egypt & Australia & New Zealand |

