

Success Criteria

- My introduction includes a general description about what is to follow.
- I organised my report in specific categories using paragraphs.
- I used subheadings.
- I ended with a conclusion.
- I used the third person.
- I used technical words.
- I thought about questions that the reader might ask and included more detail to answer these questions.

Key vocabulary

Subheadings	A mini-title for each section.
Technical words	Words that are specific to the topic that you are writing about.
Paragraphs	A section of writing around the same topic. You must start a new line for each paragraph.
Conclusion	A conclusion is a paragraph that sums up your report at the end.

Why are we learning this?

Why is it important?

Non-chronological reports give facts about things.

People can read the facts to learn about that topic.

Remember that in Year Three you must always:

Make sure that all sentences have a subject and a verb and make sense.

. ? !
“ ” ,

Use the punctuation that you have been taught correctly.

Reread your writing and uplevel it to make it more exciting.

Check your spellings using a dictionary.

Use neat handwriting with correctly formed letters and try to join your handwriting.